

Arijeet Chanda

Artist Profile and Professional Portfolio

1. Executive Artist Biography

Arijeet Chanda is an artist defined by a rigorous pursuit of artistic sovereignty. As a self-taught master, he has navigated a path of independent study, bypassing traditional institutional boundaries to cultivate a style that is a sophisticated dialogue between global traditions and immediate natural observation. His journey is not merely one of skill acquisition but a transformation from a dedicated observer into a multifaceted artist, curator, and mentor.

His aesthetic evolution is deeply rooted in extensive international travel, a deliberate pilgrimage undertaken to synthesize diverse artistic philosophies. By immersing himself in varied global landscapes and painting alongside a spectrum of international artists, Arijeet has infused his work with a dynamic range of influences. This exposure ensures his portfolio remains in a state of constant, vibrant evolution, reflecting a mastery of both classical foundations and contemporary innovation.

Today, Arijeet's practice represents a seamless integration of traditional craftsmanship and modern medium exploration, ranging from oil and acrylic to specialized epoxy and mixed media. Beyond the canvas, he serves as a strategic bridge in the arts community, curating collaborative experiences and leading "Arijeet's Art Workshop." Here, he empowers the next generation of creators to move beyond technical reproduction and grasp the profound value of the "Art of Seeing."

2. Artistic Philosophy: "The Art of Seeing"

Arijeet Chanda's practice is anchored in the belief that true art is born from the disciplined process of "learning to see" rather than the mere act of creating images. He posits that the ultimate curriculum is written by the natural world, requiring an artist to observe with intent and interpret with honesty.

"If there is any art school, it is the plein air." — Arijeet Chanda

This "Plein Air" philosophy dictates that nature is the preeminent instructor. By working directly from life, Arijeet captures the world across five essential dimensions:

- Landscapes: The recreation of environmental scale and atmospheric feeling.
- Architecture: The mastery of structural integrity and spatial perspective.
- Light & Atmosphere: A responsive capture of transient weather and temporal shifts.
- Nature: The documentation of organic form and biological rhythm.
- People & Culture: Evoking the essence of human likeness and the weight of tradition.

3. Portfolio Highlights by Medium

Arijeet's portfolio demonstrates a mastery of diverse mediums, each selected to best articulate a specific facet of his vision:

- Oil Painting: Employs traditional techniques and impressionistic influences to evoke atmospheric, timeless narratives.
- Acrylic Painting: Showcases versatility through vivid collections defined by bold color theory and dynamic composition.
- Epoxy & Mixed Media: A specialization in modern, sculptural mediums that bring a unique, three-dimensional depth to contemporary art.
- Charcoal & Portraits: Focuses on fundamental values and the interplay of light to capture the psychological depth of the human subject.
- Digital Art: Expertise in translating fine art sensibilities into digital presentations, website design, and professional print projects.

4. The Plein Air Journey & Expertise

As an Artist, Curator, and Mentor, Arijeet Chanda is a pivotal figure in the international Plein Air community. He does not simply participate in events; he curates experiences that facilitate a high-level creative exchange between emerging and accomplished artists, fostering a global community of practice.

Through "The World as the Artist's Classroom," he has refined a suite of high-level professional competencies:

- Observation & Adaptation: The ability to respond instantaneously to shifting light and environmental variables.
- Strategic Decision-Making: Mastering the art of visual simplification and confident execution under the pressure of changing conditions.
- Global Curation: Organizing international gatherings that bridge cultural divides and encourage the synthesis of diverse painting traditions.

5. Educational Leadership: The Art Workshop Curriculum

"Arijeet's Art Workshop" provides a structured, one-year mentorship program for students (ages 12+). The curriculum is meticulously designed to transition students from foundational mechanics to professional studio readiness.
